Is the AP Capstone program right for me?

Directions: Complete the checklist below to determine how well you would fit in AP Seminar, the first course in the AP Capstone program. The criteria below would also apply to AP Research as well. Consult the scoring at the bottom to see if you would be a good fit.

1. I am interested in asking big questions that drive the content I learn in class. □ Yes □ No

2. I am someone who seeks help or performs research when they are faced with difficulty. □ Yes □ No

3. I enjoy the writing process. □ Yes □ No

4. I am looking for a way to distinguish myself academically other than grades. □ Yes □ No

5. I scored in the B or higher in an AP humanities course or have an A in an Honors level social studies class. □ Yes □ No

6. I have scored in the B or higher range in my English courses or a B+ or higher in my AP Lit/Lang courses. □ Yes □ No

7. I am a self-starter and do not wait until the last minute when performing long-term assignments. □ Yes □ No

8. When my teacher provides feedback on an assessment, I will alter my approach accordingly. □ Yes □ No

9. I see the value in the process of learning; I’m not solely looking for quick answers and a good grade. □ Yes □ No

If you answered “No” to any of the underlined questions, you may not be a good fit for AP Capstone at this point. However, keep in mind it is open to all grades except 9th grade. If you answered “No” to two of the other questions, but yes to everything else please talk to your guidance counselor, Mr. Olivo or Ms. Guzman to determine if the AP Capstone program is right for you.
